

Aging and Vision Loss Presentation

People frequently equate loss of vision to old age and assume that nothing can be done to improve quality of life. However, you may be surprised to learn that one can continue many of the activities previously enjoyed.

Wednesday, March 20, 2019

Time: 10 – 11 AM

Speaker:

Carol Curdo, Program Director

Massachusetts Association for the Blind and Visually Impaired

Topics:

The Healthy Aging Eye

Macular Degeneration and other Eye Diseases

Vision Rehabilitation Services Resources

Strategies for Everyday Activities

